

Citrus Heights Police Department

introduces:

Friends of the Police Department Greeting Program

A complimentary 'wellness care check' available to the citizens of Citrus Heights.

Fellow residents volunteer to meet and greet their neighbors (in person or by phone), checking on their safety and well being -- reaching out to the community, making friends, strengthening relationships.

If you or a family member would like to request a welfare check, please fill out the attached form.

